

The Mercy Values are our Guiding Values

We commit to and demonstrate them in the following ways:

We value everyone in our community. Everything we do and say makes a statement about who we are and our regard for others. We demonstrate concern and support for individual difference that communicates our respect for others.

As Compassionate people, we have genuine sympathy for the hardship and suffering of others and a desire to help ease that pain. Our compassionate acts may be large or small, but they all come from the heart.

We gladly welcome all guests and strangers. We are inclusive of everyone and celebrate diversity, valuing the dignity of each and every person. We share our gifts freely and support those in need in a warm, friendly and generous manner.

Justice for us means equity for all. It exists in our attitudes towards others, and in the way we treat other people. All voices should be heard, and we remain balanced in listening to them all. We work hard to forge strong relationships within our community.

It is a privilege to be able to serve others. We are all responsible to our community and their needs are as important as our own. We offer our assistance freely with humility and grace. Service is giving to others in order to make a difference in their lives. Acting with a spirit of service, you can change the world.

We show Courage, not by facing situations without fear, but by facing them despite our fear. We are honest and brave and act with integrity to challenge ourselves and others. We strive to develop the emotional and moral strength to venture, persevere, and withstand danger, fear, or difficulty.
